THE STOP AND SHOP SUPERMARKET
COMPANY, LLC,

Defendant.
-----X

THE HONORABLE ANDREW E. KRAUSE, U.S.M.J.

At a telephonic status conference held on November 1, 2023, the Court resolved the issues raised in the parties' letters filed at ECF Nos. 51, 52, and 53 as follows:

- (1) Plaintiff must inform Defendant's counsel today whether his mother, Glyda Alexander, is available for an additional deposition on November 9, 2023. If she is not available on that date, then Plaintiff must provide alternate dates for the deposition. By November 3, 2023, Defendant will file a letter informing the Court of the date on which Glyda Alexander's deposition will take place.
- (2) By November 3, 2023, Plaintiff must mail to Judge Krause a thumb drive with a copy of the audio recording Plaintiff previously provided to Defendant.
- (3) By November 3, 2023, Plaintiff must inform Defendant's counsel which specific discovery responses he considers to be deficient, and the way in which they are deficient. By November 9, 2023, Defendant must respond to Plaintiff in writing with respect to these alleged deficiencies.
- (4) Plaintiff must file a letter by November 16, 2023, informing the Court whether he still believes that any of Defendant's discovery responses are deficient. In the letter, Plaintiff must specify which discovery responses are deficient (i.e., provide interrogatory and document request numbers), and the way(s) in which they are deficient. Defendant must file a letter in response by November 28, 2023. Defendant is hereby directed to include with its responsive letter copies of the discovery responses that Plaintiff alleges to be deficient.

For example, if Plaintiff contends that the response to a particular interrogatory is inadequate, Defendant must attach a copy of its interrogatory responses so that the Court will have a copy of the disputed item available for the next conference.

The next conference in this matter will take place in person on December 8, 2023 at 10:00 a.m. in Courtroom 250 at the federal courthouse in White Plains, 300 Quarropas Street, White Plains, NY 10601.

Dated: November 1, 2023

SO ORDERED.
